

SLASHING OF PRICES
IN FOOD AND CLOTHING IS NOW WIDESPREAD

Most of all kinds, necessities and luxuries, are being advertised and sold in St. Louis at greatly reduced prices over those of a few weeks ago. Clothing, offered at reduced prices during the past few weeks, has been reduced still further. Men's $65 suits are selling at $38.75, and boys' suits from $12.50 to $3.95. Women's wear, dresses, shoes, suits and hats have all been reduced.

San Francisco Expects Still Greater Reductions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—The general trend of prices of food and clothing in Central California has been downward since May 1, when they apparently reached their peak. Wholesale shoe prices have dropped 20 per cent. since March and retail prices 25 per cent. Most foods have dropped materially in the same period.

Slight Cut in New Orleans; No Juice Change Expected.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24.—A moderate cut in the price of women's clothing, a slight reduction in men's apparel and a still slighter drop in the cost of staple foods is the reply of the New Orleans retail market to the news of general slashing of prices by mail order houses and the announcement of the forthcoming return to normal prices by Government experts. Local merchants agreed in forecasting a continued lowering of prices next year.

Patent Flowers Reduced to $12.00 a Dozen.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 24.—A reduction of 35 cents a barrel to $12.00 on patent flowers has been put in effect by local millers. It was the first change in the flour market since late last July.

MOTOR LICENSE INSPECTOR GUILTY

Geogan Promoted Sale of Stolen Auto and Got New License Plate for It.

Robert Geogan, an inspector of the State Automobile License Department, Albany, was today found guilty of conspiracy to violate the Federal Motor Vehicle Law by a jury which returned a sealed verdict to Judge Sheppard in Federal District Court here.

A new license plate on an old car purchased by Morris Ginsberg from Orlando C. Stephens, who later was convicted of stealing the car, attracted attention. It was charged that Geogan got it for Ginsberg and sent Ginsberg to Stephens to buy a second hand car.

Several indictments of similar character are pending against Geogan. He will be sentenced Monday by Judge Sheppard.

GIRL HELD IN FORGERY CASE.

Accused of Cashing Check Fished From Mail Box, She Blames Man.

Anna Peck, eighteen, of No. 225 Cortlandt Avenue, Bronx, was committed to the Bronx County Jail today by Magistrate South in the West Farms Court, for examination Monday on a grand larceny charge. She was alleged to have induced her mother's employer, Herman Hyde, a manufacturer of No. 5325 White Plains Road, to cash a check for $118.66 drawn by the Concorde Music Company to the order of Jack Miller, Inc., music publisher of No. 152 West 4th Street. The check was said to have been "fished" from a mail box and the endorsement forged.

When arrested, Anna said she cashed the check at request of a man friend.

JUST before Labor Day we allowed the public to begin making selections of lots at "East Flatbush." Between that date and the 13th, when our Advertising Campaign started, first payments were received on over 600 lots without a dollar expended in any form of advertising. This forced us to add sufficient property to the original amount laid out—(1,100 lots)—in order to take care of the overwhelming demand. It is therefore absolutely essential for you to visit "East Flatbush" without delay if you wish to be sure of a choice selection.

3rd Section Just Added to Original Plan

HAVEN for HOME HUNTERS

East Flatbush—The Beautiful
Opens Her Doors and Bids You Welcome

Kings Highway and Avenue J—Brooklyn

Served by Nostrand Ave. Extension of Interborough Subway

HOUSELESS!—HOMELESS!—the gathering army of shortsighted New Yorkers are seeking shelter anywhere at any price.

For twenty years we have urged, argued and pleaded with you to let us build you a home. You have been blind and deaf to all our entreaties. Against our argument—against the editorial advice of this great paper you are reading, you have laughed and said: "It is cheaper to pay rent than to own my own home."

You have shut your eyes on past opportunities, and now you are paying the price for your unwisdom.

We are the largest operators in the world. We have provided homes for more people than any twenty firms in America. We want to help you—we can help you. Will you be helped?

The first step is land. Get your land, and you are bound to get your home. All the forces of the city of New York and the great Savings Banks and Insurance Institutions can be depended upon to back the people in their efforts to own homes of their own.

When freedom is in sight, you are the only one who is holding back. Why? Is it because you prefer movies to flowers, green grass and shady trees? Is it because you prefer a dark hole in a tenement house to a five minutes' walk in light, air and sunshine? Is it because you prefer paying your last dollar to a landlord to saving it and becoming lord of the land yourself?

East Flatbush is now on the market. Plots, beautifully improved, $390 to $990, mean that the prices of 1900 prevail and not those of to-day. A dollar buys only 80 cents' worth of food and clothing; it will buy $2 worth of land, and $10 per month will carry you on.

If you prefer a house already built, and have $1,500 in cash, we have 100 beautiful semi-detached six-room cottages, ready to step in and set up housekeeping.

Do not delay a day. Do not delay a minute. Come, see and be convinced.
